

Dr. Eduardo Barragán Pérez
Neuropediatrician

SHORT BIOSCKETCK
México DF, 2012

Dr. Eduardo Barragán Pérez, General practitioner, pediatrician and pediatric neurologist. Graduate of General Medicine from Universidad Autónoma de Guadalajara, and for Pediatrics and Pediatric Neurology from Universidad Nacional Autónoma de México (UNAM).

Chief of residents of National Mexican Health Institute for children (HIM) (1999-2000). Associate Professor in pediatric neurology, UNAM. Master of Sciences in medicine and odontology, UNAM. Associate professor at La salle University.

Coordinator of the neurodevelopmental clinic (ADHD, learning disabilities and autism), refractory epilepsy and epilepsy surgery, at the neurology department, HIM. Principal investigator in neurodevelopmental disorders and epilepsy. Teaching vocal at HIM.

Ixtlilton Award, for the best pediatrician under 40s, Hospital Infantil de México (2007).

Past General Secretary, Mexican chapter, ILAE (CAMELICE) (2005-2007). CAMELICE representant for the Latin American Academy (ALADE)(2007-2009).

Commissioner Credentials's committee, Latin American commission, ILAE (2007-2009). Past-President of the Mexican Chapter, ILAE (2009-2011).

General Secretary of the Latin American Commission, ILAE (2009-2012).

Member of the Task force (ILAE) for Autism & Epilepsy and pediatric sub commission for epilepsy surgery.

Associated editor for the e-book ILAE. Founder and past-president of the Experts National group for the study of Attention Deficit disorder (GENPETDAH, A.C.)(2005-2008).

Founder and Past-President of the Latin American League for the study of ADHD (LILAPETDAH)(2007-2011).

Author of 6 textbooks (ADHD, Epilepsy, and neurodevelopment), author and coauthor of more than 70 national and international chapters for textbooks, and more than 50 articles as author and co-author in national and international journals, national and international speaker.